

Joan and Sanford I. Weill Medical College of Cornell University
Office of Academic Affairs
Humanities and Medicine Series and
The Weill Cornell Medical Student Geriatrics Interest Group (GIG)
Present

An Evening with Jazz Legend Al Gallodoro

*Moderated by Mark Lachs, MD
Professor of Medicine, Weill Medical College
Co-Chief, Division of Geriatrics and Gerontology*

Wednesday, September 8, 2004
5:00 PM
Uris Auditorium

Al Gallodoro's career has spanned the history of modern American music. He is best known as a saxophonist and clarinetist with the Paul Whiteman Orchestra. A master musician of many genres, Mr. Gallodoro has also worked with Arturo Toscanini, Leopold Stokowski, Leonard Bernstein, and Percy Faith. Over 20 arrangements have been written for him, including "Gallodoro's Serenade for Saxophone and Piano," by Ferde Grofe. Al, who has just celebrated his 91st birthday, has also appeared in several films.

Mr. Gallodoro has agreed to share his experiences (and to perform!) This is an opportunity that should not be missed!

Special thanks to Nancy Burnett and Dr. Ali Zohoori, Co-Producers, "The Al Gallodoro Story"